

How To Use And Integrate The Bot Into Your Group

The bot is very easy to use and intuitive. This article will help group owners and users on how to use the bot.

1. Adding The Bot Into Your Group

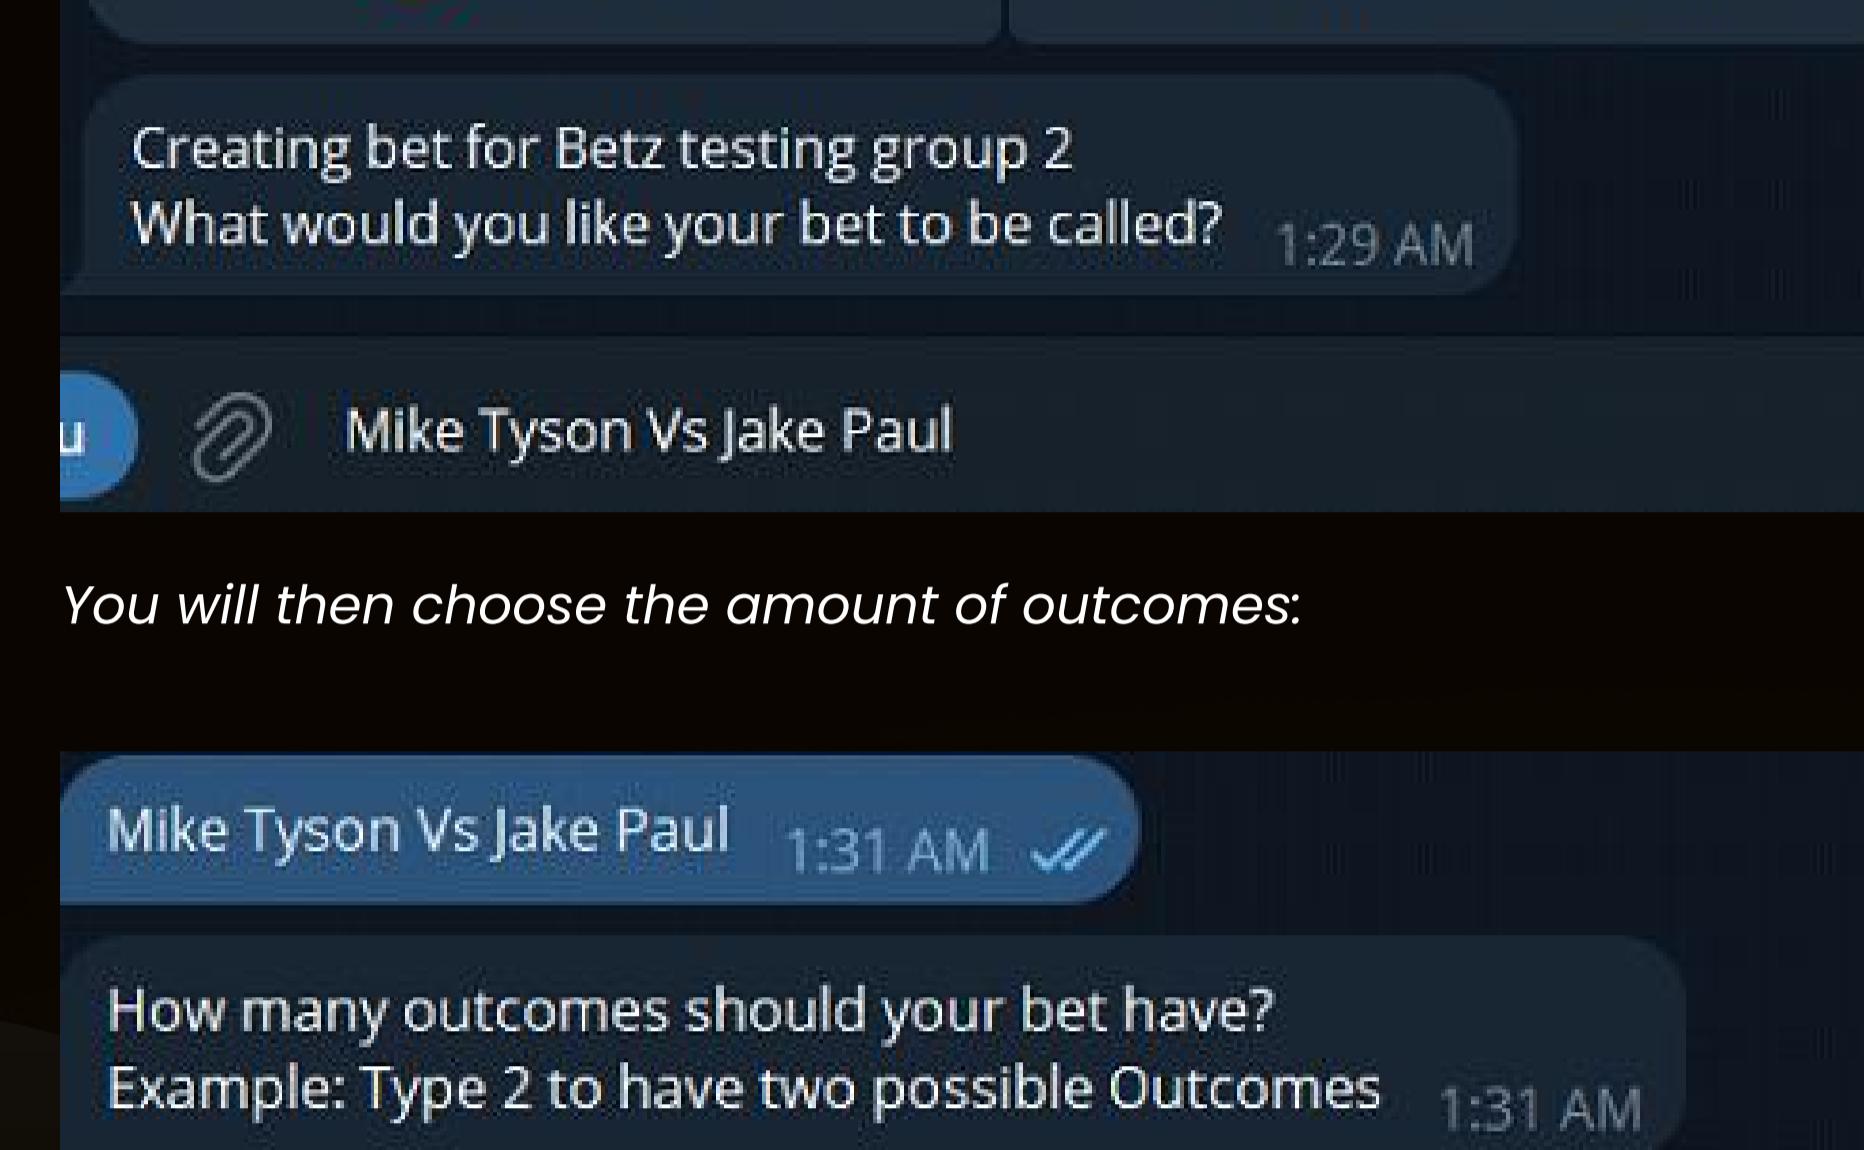

The bot can be found on telegram by searching "@betloungepvp_bot" or clicking here: https://t.me/betloungepvp_bot. You can then click start which will open up a welcome message and other prompts such as /Menu and /Help.

The Menu Prompt will open up the following menu:

Once you deposit funds you are ready to bet!

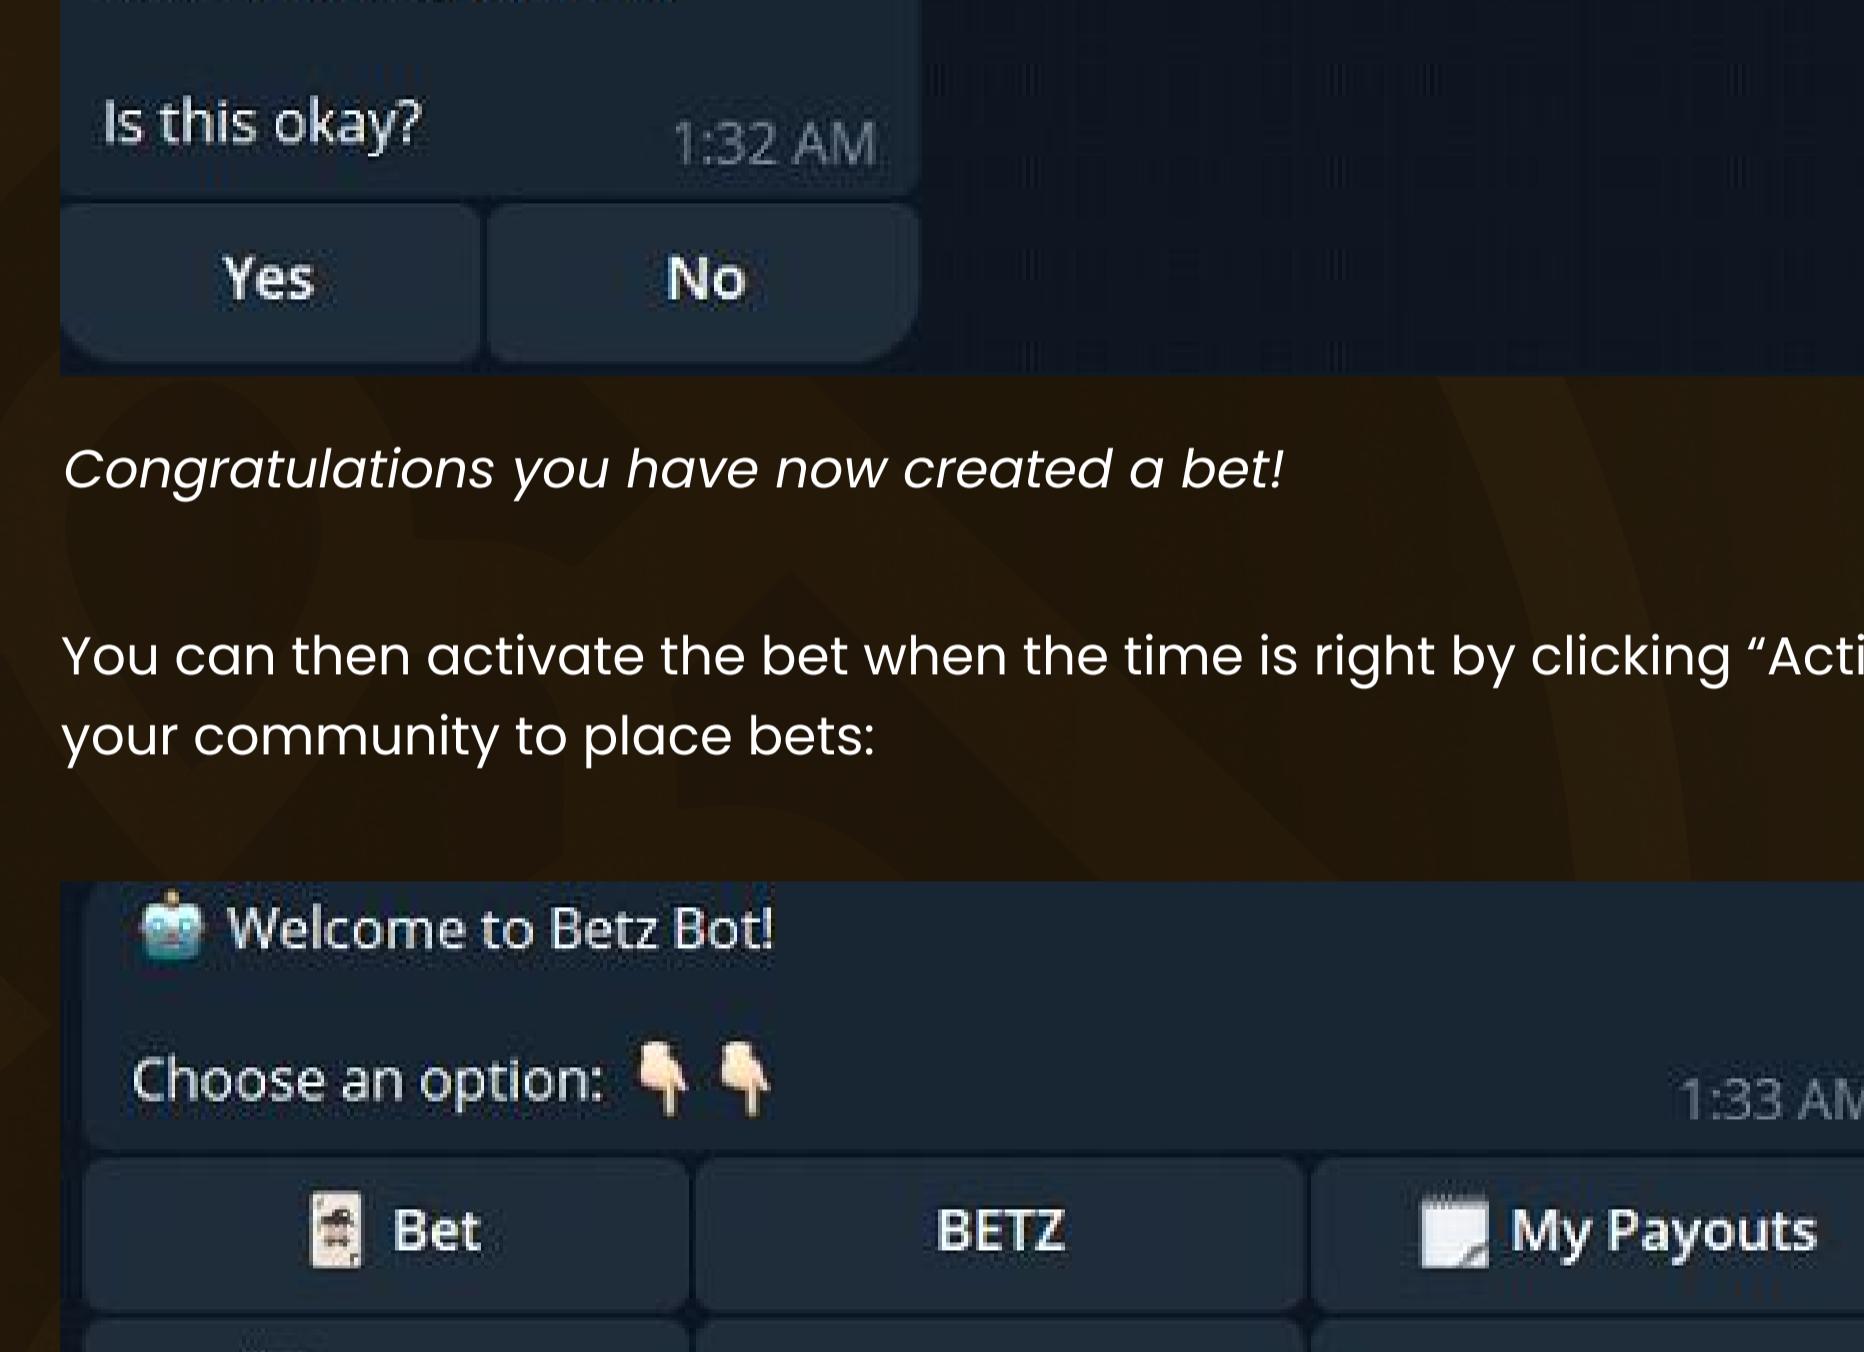

2. Fund Your Account

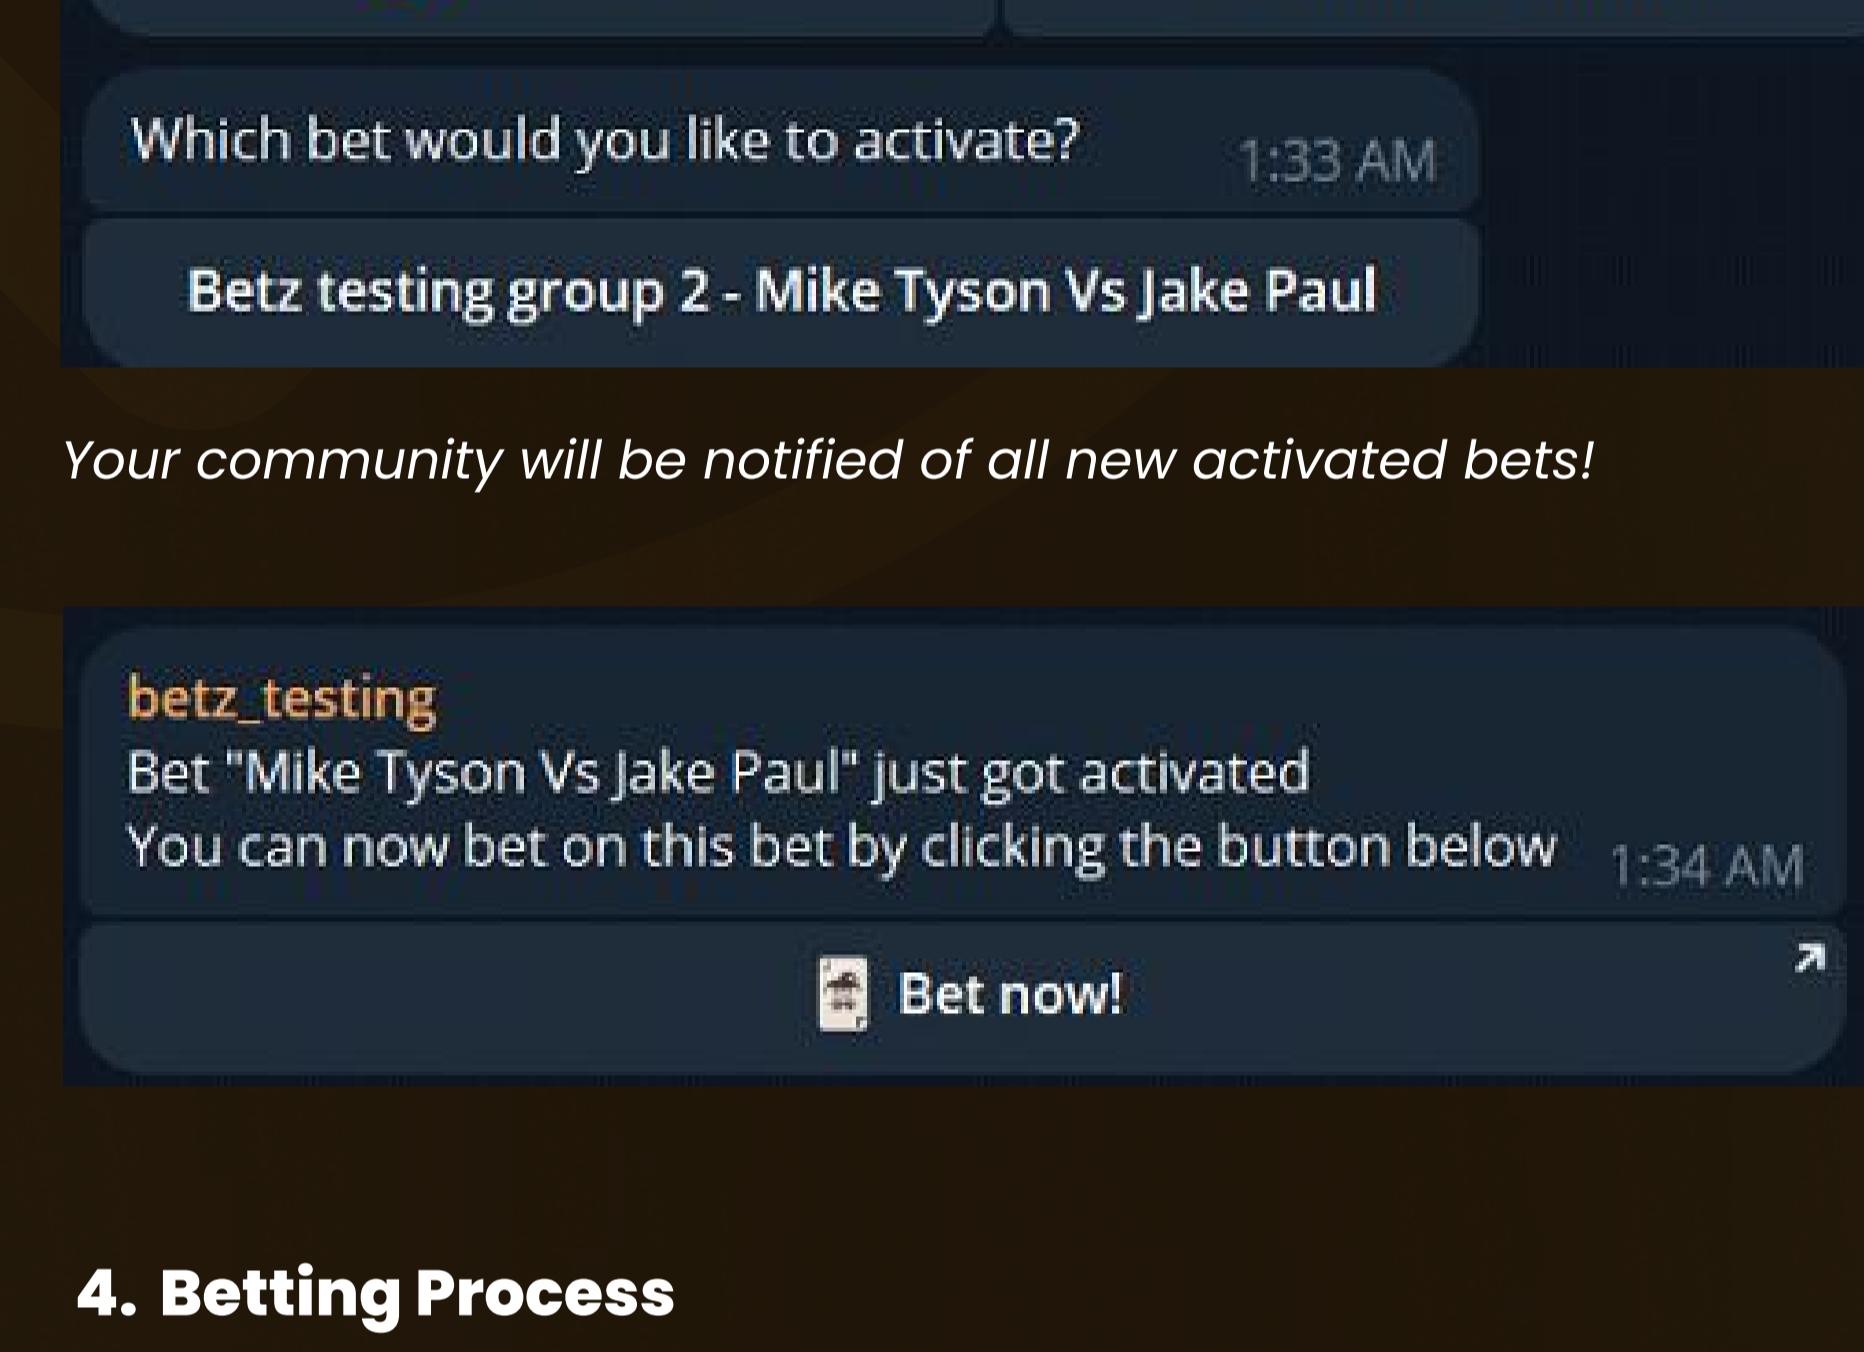

Once you click balance, it will give you a create deposit address option. Once you deposit eth you are ready to bet! If you already made a deposit address you can see it when you click Show Balance

3. Creating Custom Bets For Your Group

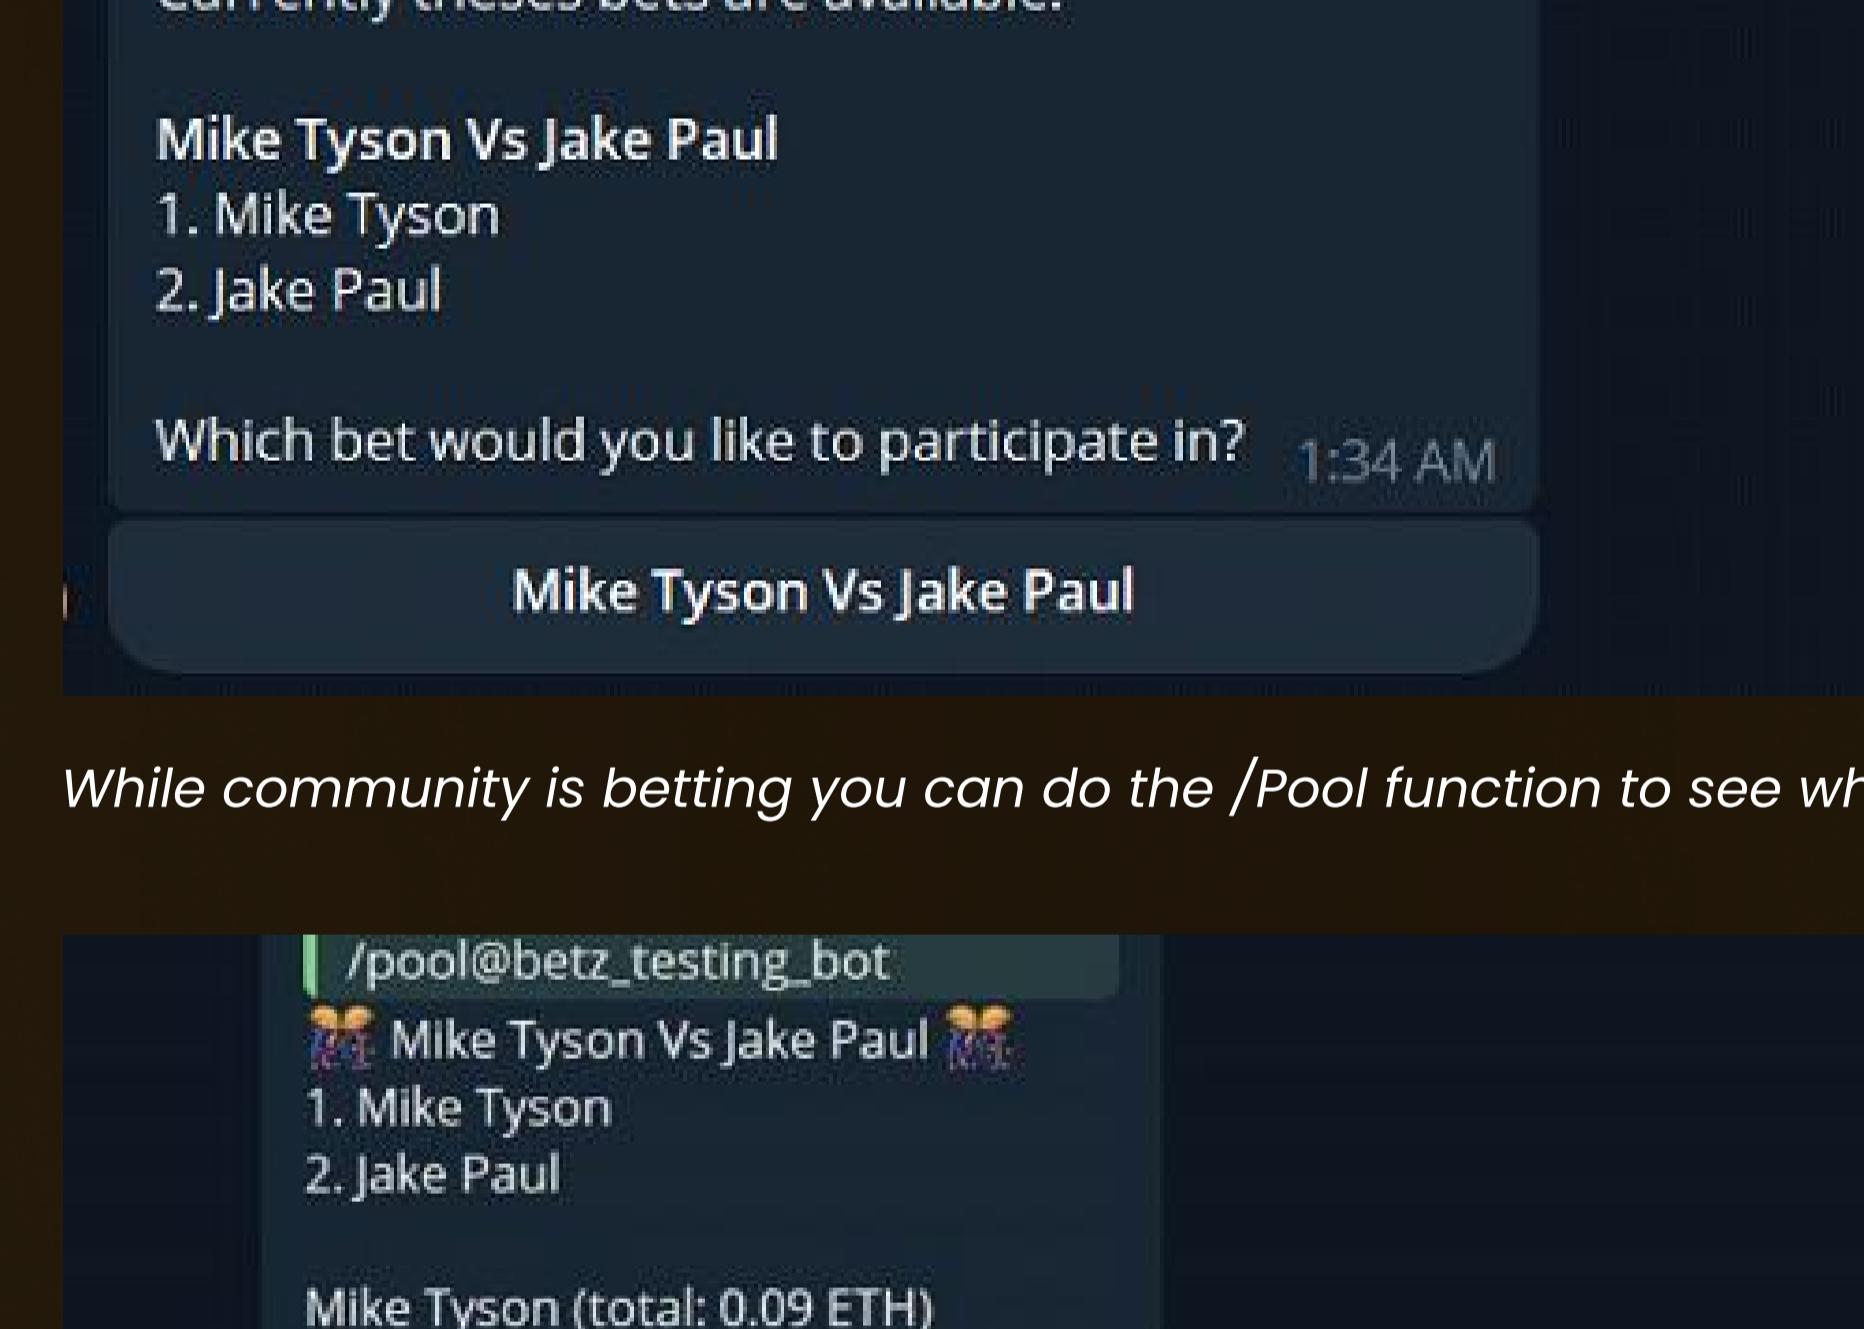

If you are a group owner in a group that this bot is in, you can then create bets in any of those groups, they show up as follows when you click "Create Bet". You then click the group you want to set the bet in:

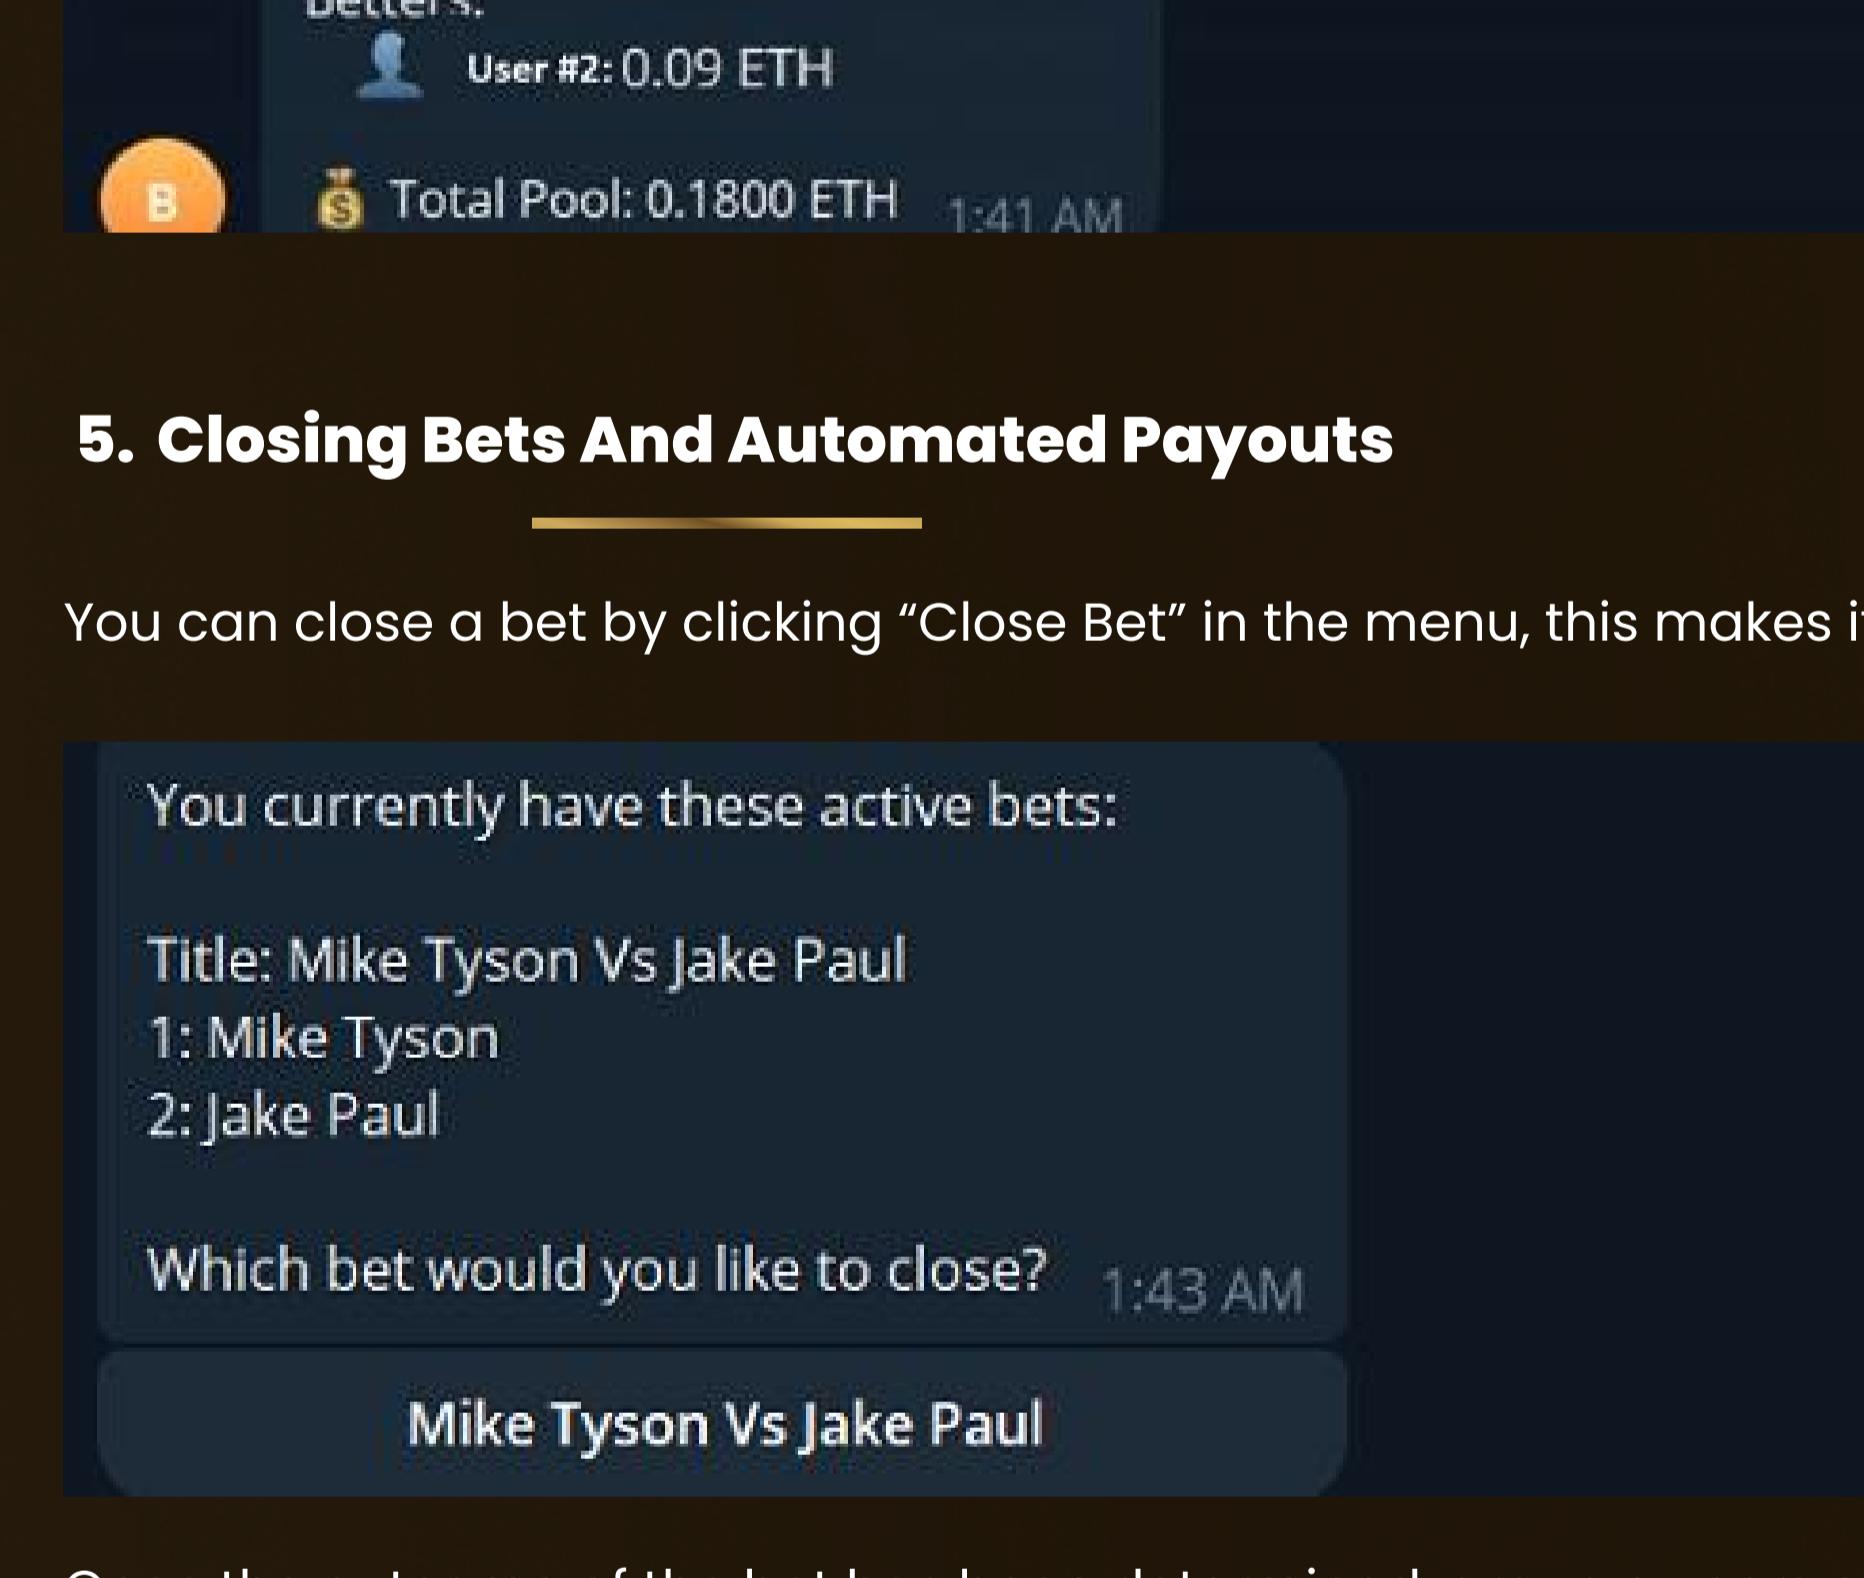

You can then name the title of the bet:

You will then choose the amount of outcomes:

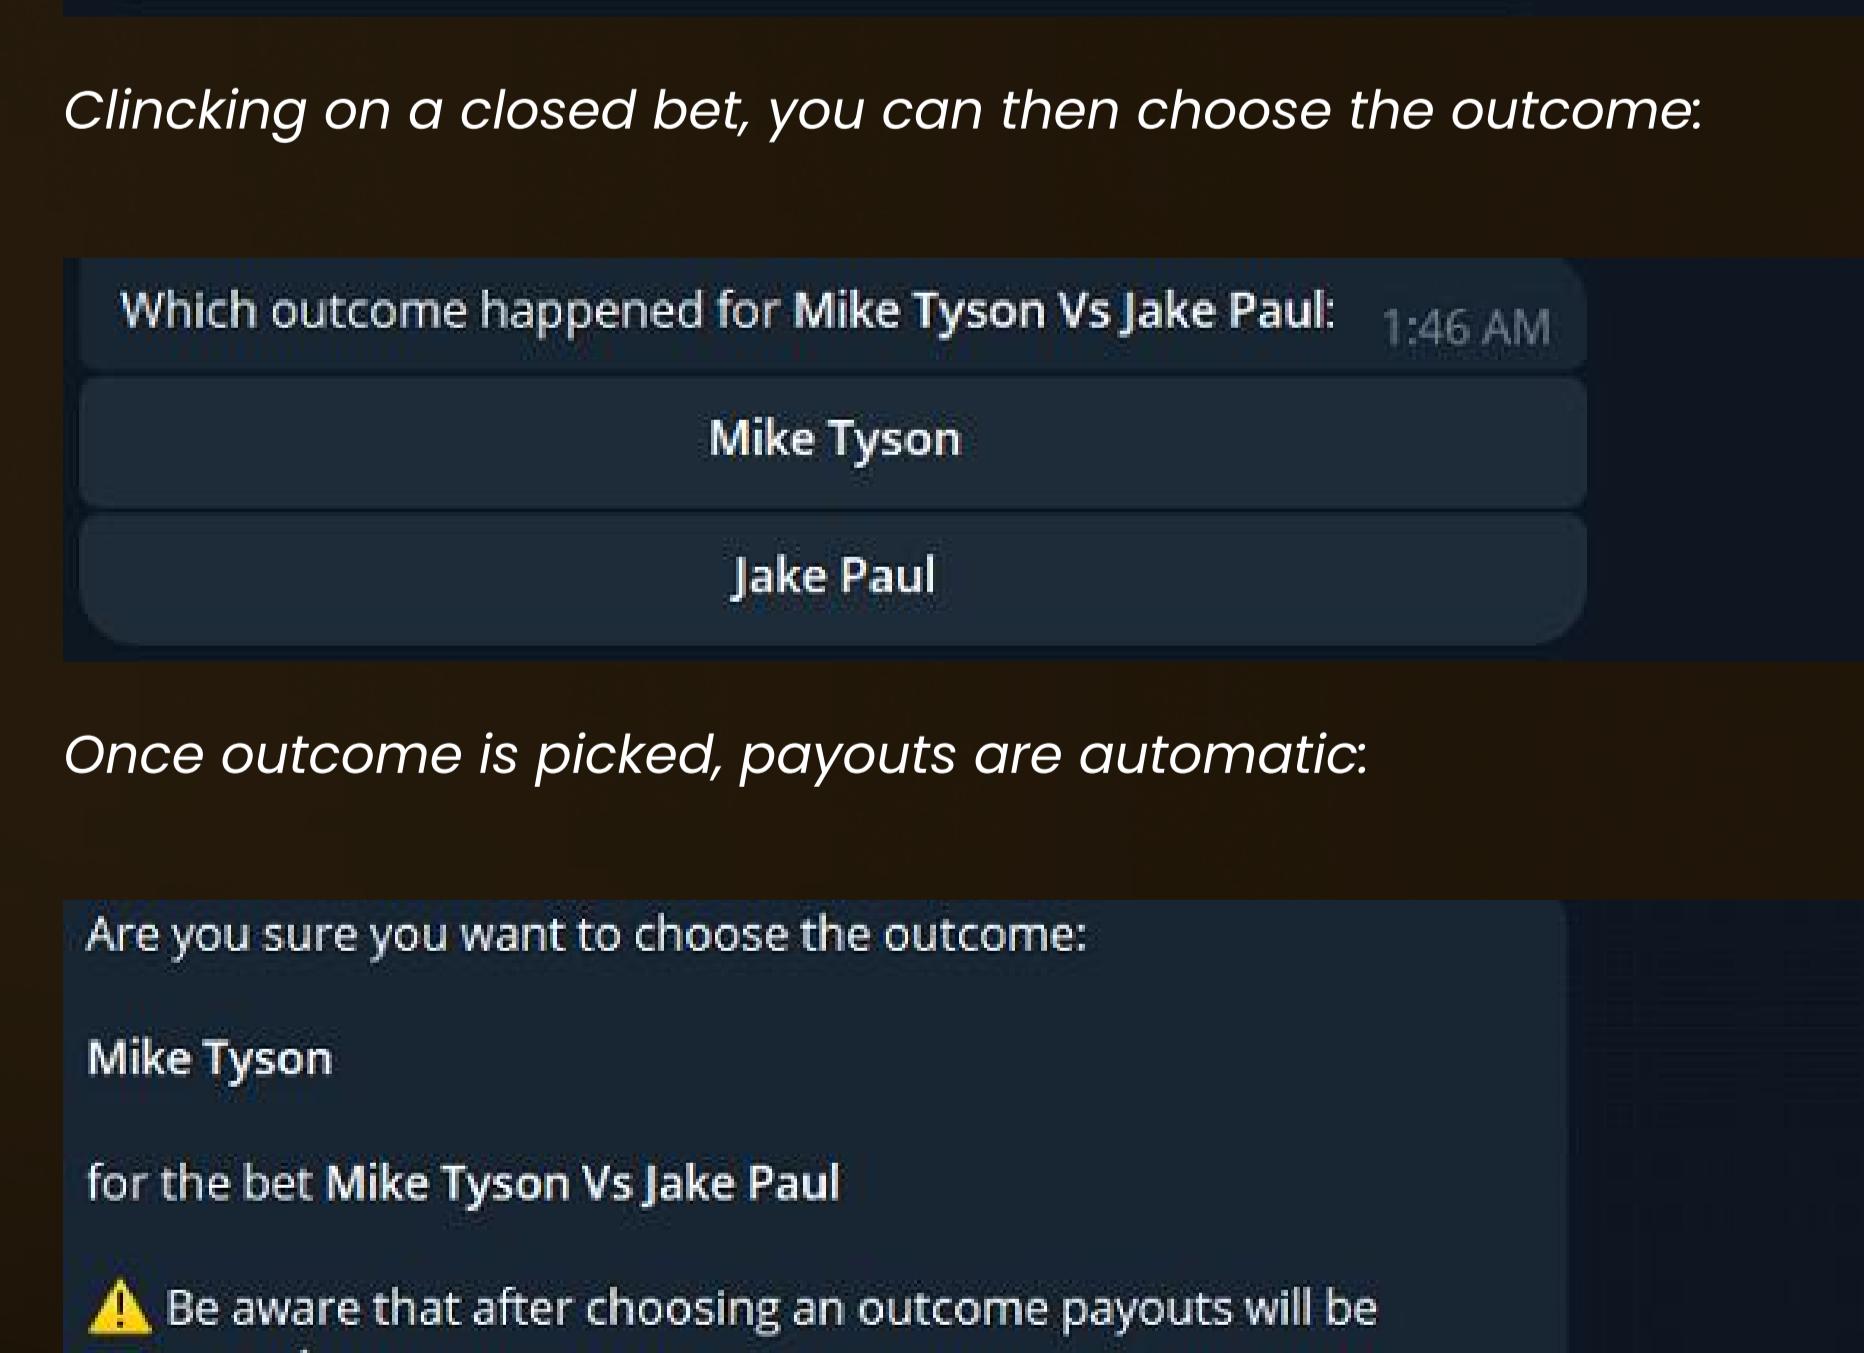

Once you choose the outcomes, you must name the outcomes:

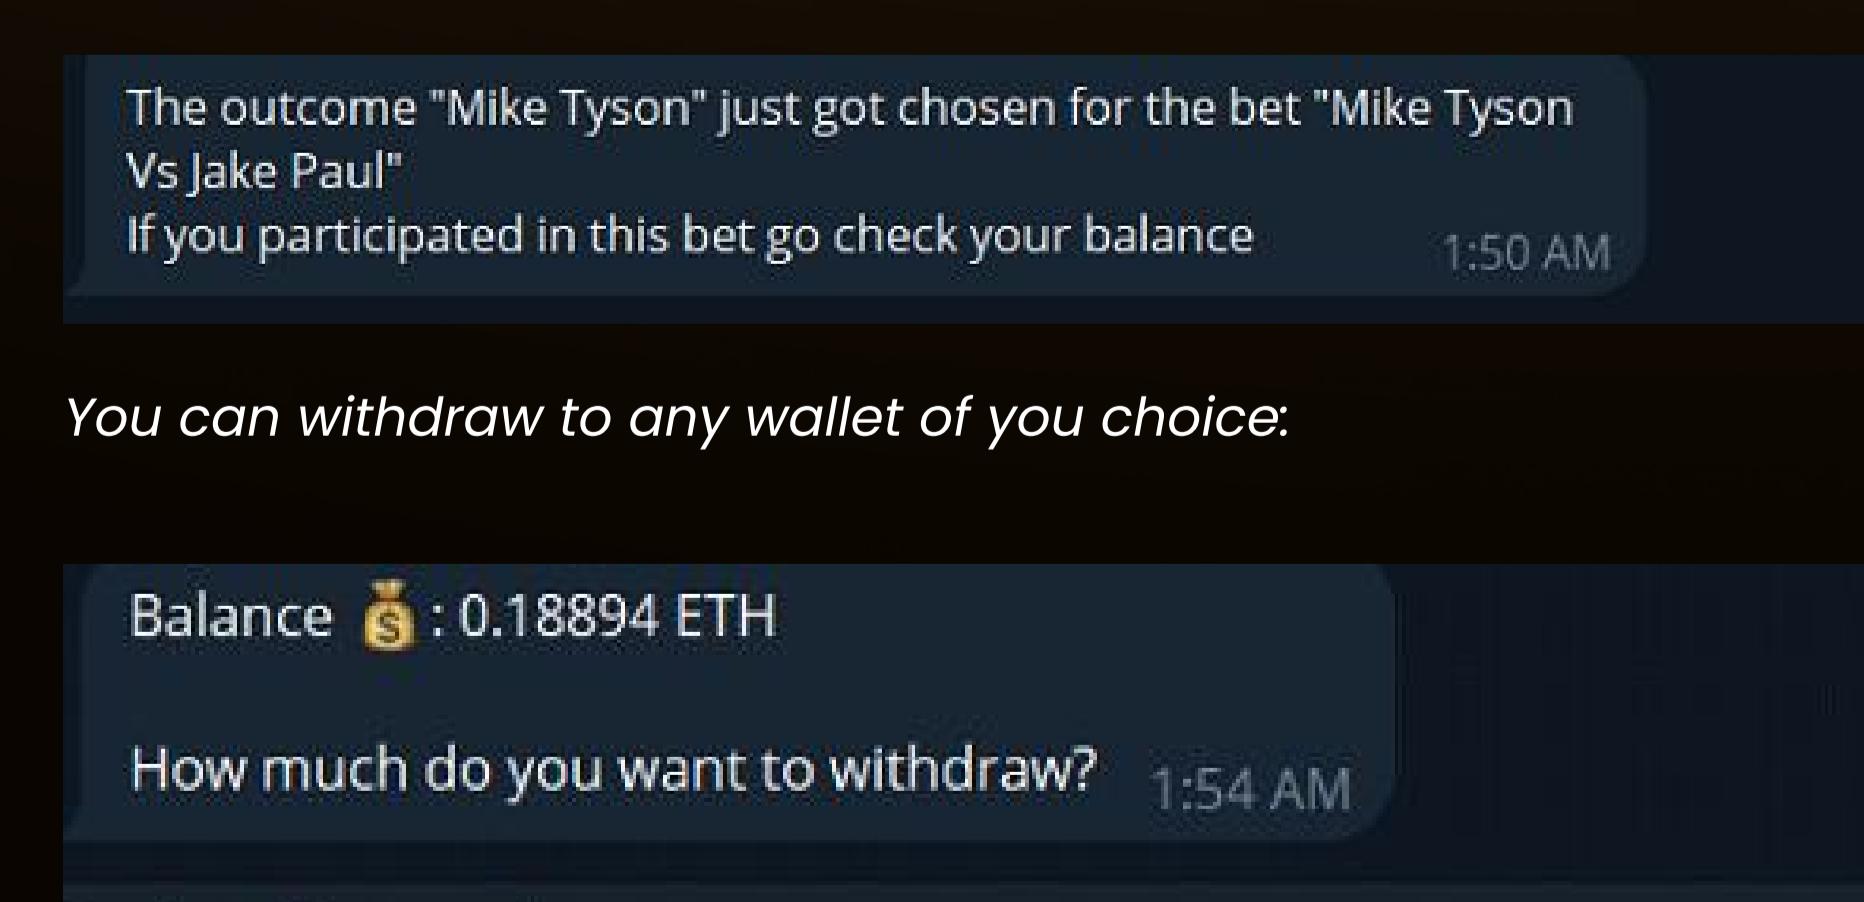

Congratulations you have now created a bet!

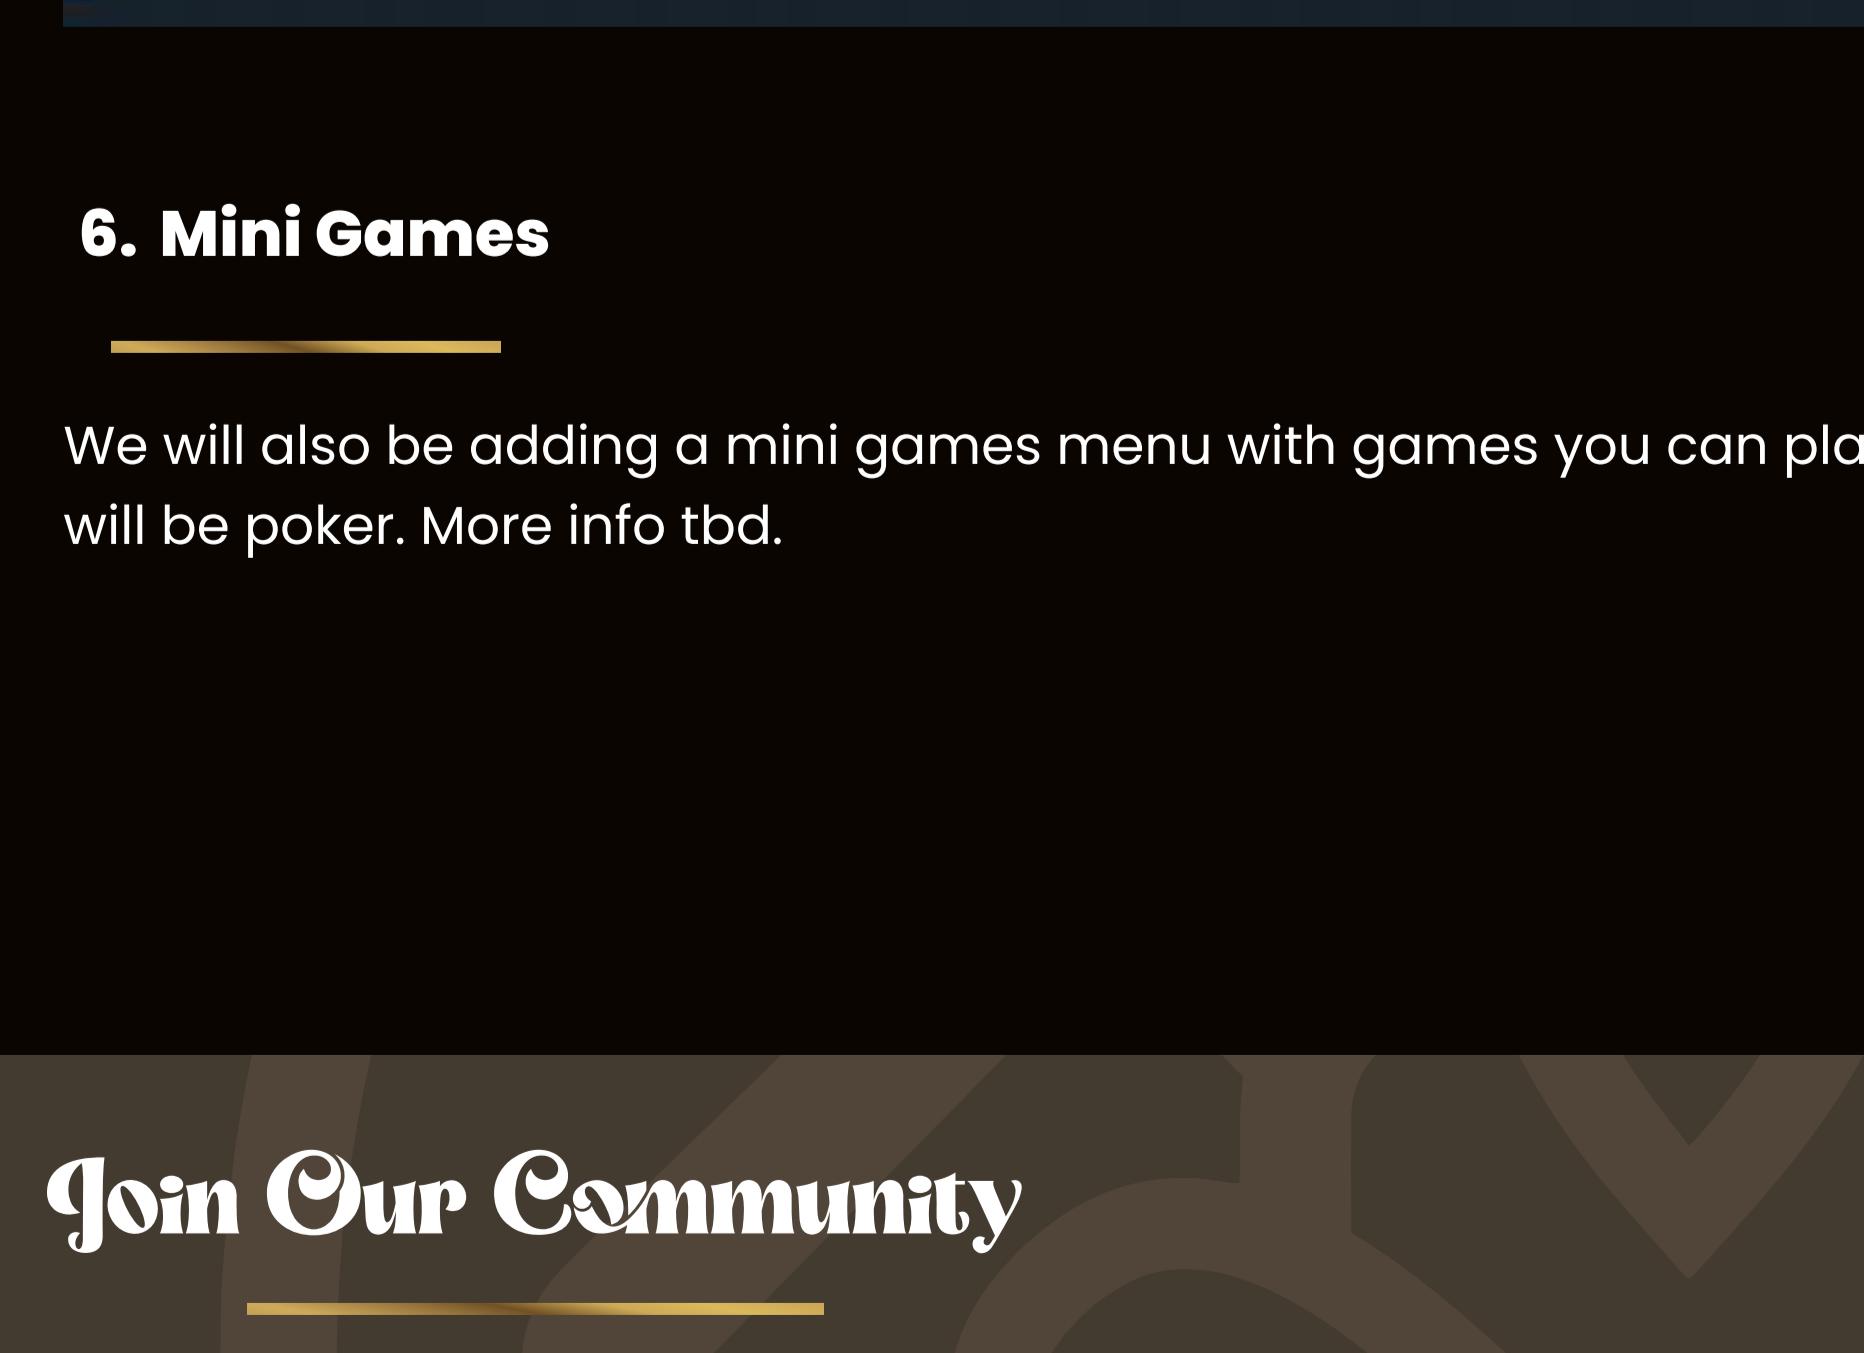

You can then activate the bet when the time is right by clicking "Activate Bet", this allows your community to place bets:

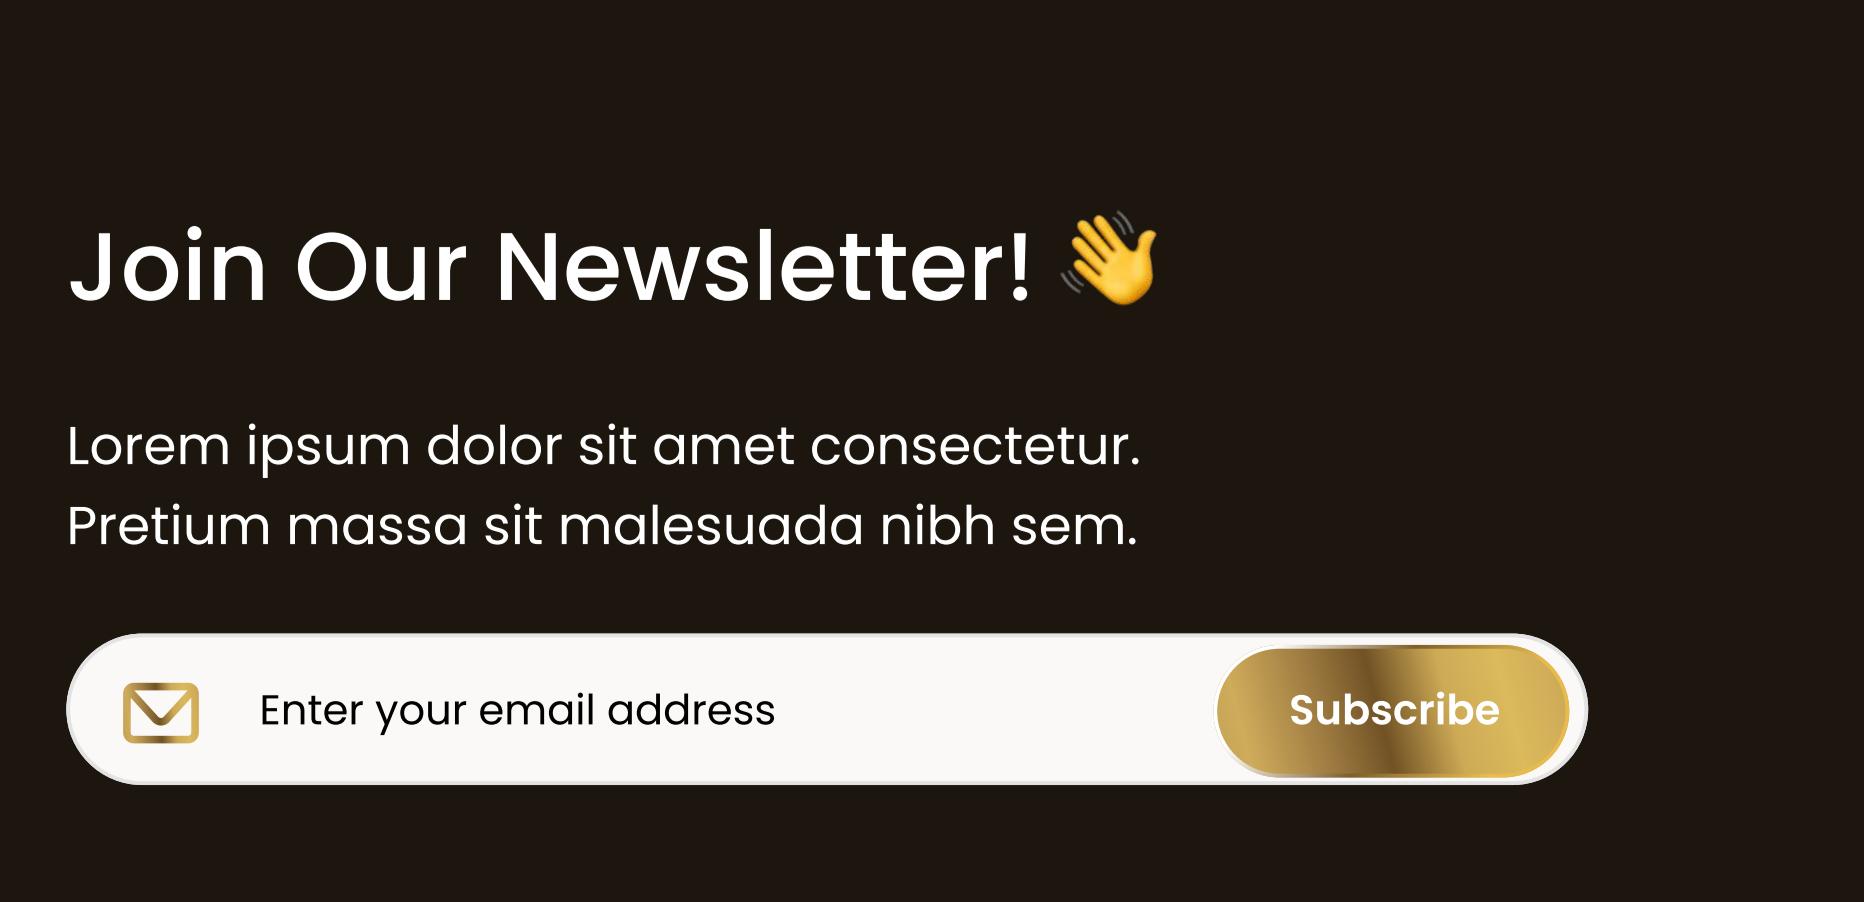

Your community will be notified of all new activated bets!

While community is betting you can do the /Pool function to see who has bet on what:

Once the outcome of the bet has been determined, group owners can then input the outcome by clicking "Choose Outcome" which will bring them to a list of closed bets:

Clincking on a closed bet, you can then choose the outcome:

Once outcome is picked, payouts are automatic:

Are you sure you want to choose the outcome:

Mike Tyson

for the bet Mike Tyson Vs Jake Paul

⚠️ Be aware that after choosing an outcome payouts will be processed

Cancel Confirm

Your community will then get a notification of the outcome and that payouts have been done:

You can withdraw to any wallet of your choice:
